Mr. Plaut,

Please see the attached orders, one of which was filed on the docket in Parker v. Bursor, ECF 295. The other is pending an ECF # because it is not yet uploaded onto the docket by the Court.

Note that, unless otherwise directed by Judge Tarnofsky, it is this Court's practice to file on the docket any case-related correspondence that is emailed to chambers. If you are not represented by counsel in this matter, then any future correspondence must be emailed as a signed PDF to ProSe@nysd.uscourts.gov, with the subject line "Pro Se Filing – 24-cv-245." Be advised that it may take up to two business days for any filings to appear on the docket.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Thank you very much for helping me. Do I need to appear this Wed or not given that both Plaintiff and Defendants attorneys have all the information that I could reasonably provide related to the events of May 3rd, 2023. I did not know Miss Parker prior to Dec 2022.
